DISTINGUISHED SAFETY DIRECTOR OF THE YEAR

Criteria for the Award:

ELIGIBILITY -- The nominee must be a member of the Missouri Council of Safety Supervisors, and must be a full-time employee who is assigned safety responsibilities.

NOMINATIONS -- The only way one may be nominated is either by another Council member or by one's own company and then such nomination must be submitted in writing to the Association along with reasons for such nominations. Self-nominations are not permitted.

JUDGES -- Judges for the award will be the same as the judges for the Driver-of-the-Month contest with one exception. One member of the Association's staff will sit with the judges as an advisor with no voting rights. This advisor should not be the liaison officer of the Council.

Judges should have an interview with the top three candidates before determining the winner only if needed to break a tie.

DATES -- The time period involved will be from July 1 to July 1.

Nominations must be submitted by January 4th 2027.

AWARD -- An appropriate gift will be presented to the winner at the MoTA Annual Safety Banquet, in February of each year.

Council meeting attendance will be taken into consideration by the judges in determining a winner.
